VISITS ROSE TOURNAMENT

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Haynes were the invited guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paige, New Year's day, for a motor trip to the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena. The scene was all new and rarely beautiful to the eyes of the easterners, who have only praise for the scenery of Southern California, especially if that scene contains an orange tree. Just now it is Mr. Haynes' chief ambition to own a real live orange tree as an adjunct to his new home on North Arlington street. Later on he may be having to devise schemes to keep the gophers from getting his tree. Mr. and Mrs. Haynes, after the day of sightseeing, stopped over with relatives in Los Angeles where they were joined by their two daughters, Frances May and Miss Florence.

SENDS LETTER OF THANKS

Paul Lessing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lessing, of Arlington avenue, who has been confined in the Children's Hospital, for some time, sends a letter of thanks to Mrs. P. Brown of Arlington avenue, thanking the Torrance Relief Society for sending him a surprise box for Christmas. Mrs. Brown was in charge and she arranged the box with a present for each day for nine days, or a present for each letter in the word "Christmas." Each day he drew out a letter and fastened to this was a ribbon tied to a present for that day. It not only helped to pass the time away but afforded amusement for other children in the hospital as well. A very good idea for others to follow.
